Shepherd Press

Shepherd Press
P O Box 24
Wapwallopen, PA 18660

At Shepherd Press, we are committed to publishing and promoting resources that practically connect biblical principles with the real world. It is our prayer and desire that Christ-honoring publications such as these will have wide usefulness among God's people and that, as a result, the gospel of his grace will be loved and obeyed, and that the whole Bible will be unhesitatingly preached throughout the nations.

In this 2020 edition of our catalog, we are delighted to share with you not only the tried-and-tested Shepherding resources, but also several new titles: many more in the LifeLine mini-book imprint, several new Counsel for the Heart books, and a wonderful book for families that we are sure you will want to share with others—God with Us, due to release in the fall. See the back cover for more information.

In particular, there are three qualities that we look for in the books and materials Shepherd Press produces.

They must be gospel driven. The grace of the gospel is not just for sinners; it is for saints, too. The grace and power of the gospel is our only hope.

They must be heart focused. Proverbs 4:23 reminds us that the heart is the wellspring of life. Lasting growth takes place as the heart is changed by grace.

They must be life changing. Lasting change takes place as the power of the gospel transforms the heart and bears fruit in a believer's life.

We believe you will find the books in this catalog to possess these essential transforming qualities. May the Lord bless their use!

The Quest for Truth: A Journey into the Heart of Christianity

SHANNON HURLEY

ISBN 978-1-63342-182-0 | Large-format (7 x 9 inch) workbook, 248pp | $19.99

An intensive investigation of the Bible's teaching about the true Christian faith; interactive workbook format.

This is more than just a book; it is a road map. It is penned with passion, concern, and thoughtful consideration for its readers. It provides guidance through the wonderful teaching of God's Word, the Bible, in a systematic and comprehensive way. It does not assume that its readers have a lot of knowledge, and it cuts a careful course through key Old Testament and New Testament aspects of the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. Readers working their way through this—whether as individuals or in a group—will complete the fifteen chapters with a robust and comprehensive understanding of God-centered Christianity.

"I want to urge you to dig into, devour, and digest every page of this critically important book."
—Steven J. Lawson

"The Quest for Truth is a helpful primer to Christian thought, designed to facilitate evangelism and discipleship through interactive lessons."
—John MacArthur

"I'm so excited about The Quest for Truth.... I highly recommend it for personal study, small groups, or the classroom!"
—Joni Eareckson Tada

Author Dr. Shannon Hurley, born and raised in Southern California, is a graduate of The Master's University and Seminary. Now serving with Sufficiency of Scripture Ministries www.sosministries.com (a mission he founded), Shannon resides in Uganda, East Africa, with his wife and children. SOS Ministries is committed to strengthening God's Church throughout Uganda and discipling its local communities for Christ. Shannon wants to see an army of African leaders raised up who, out of love for people and a zeal for the glory of God, have a fervency to see Christ reign supremely in the hearts of all people.

Loving Messy People: The Messy Art of Helping One Another Become More Like Jesus

SCOTT MEHL
978-1-63342-183-7
224pp | $16.99

Anxiety • Depression • Lust • Addiction • Trauma • Chronic Illness
Unfulfilling work • Ungrateful children • Unpredictable circumstances • Eating problems • Relational problems • Financial problems • Pain • Suffering • Sin

Life's a mess. And nobody escapes it. Your life's a mess. Your friends' and family's lives are a mess, too. But thankfully, God has a plan to deal with the mess. It involves you, and it involves me. Even with all of our messes, God wants to use every one of us in the lives of those around us to be part of his glorious rescue plan in their lives.

If you don't know exactly what to do or even where to start, Loving Messy People is for you. This book is a practical handbook designed to equip you for each of the messy situations in your life and the lives of those around you. Filled with real-life stories, biblical truth, and practical wisdom, this book will show you how God wants to use you in his plan to transform the mess in people's lives into something redemptive and beautiful.

"Loving Messy People is a biblical treasure chest of encouragement, hope, pastoral wisdom, and practical instruction that brings the gospel to life and enables the reader to not only discover and learn but actually implement and reproduce gospel care and love."
—Ryan Townsend: Executive Director, 9Marks

"If you're like me and need help with your messy life, or you just want to help others to take simple steps forward out of chaos, buy and give away Loving Messy People."

—Dave Harvey: President of Great Commission Collective

"With theological insight and practical tools, Mehl teaches how to love people the way Jesus did so we can become the people Jesus made us to be. I hope this book gets read widely."

—Jeremy Treat: Pastor for Preaching and Vision at Reality LA in Los Angeles, California

"Scott Mehl has written a creative and easy-to-digest work that will help motivate and equip all believers in their God-given role of ministry to one another."

—Stuart Scott: Professor of Biblical Counseling, The Masters University

Scott Mehl (D.Min., Southern Seminary) pastors Cornerstone Church of West LA (since 2005). His ministry focuses include preaching, teaching, counseling, and church-wide vision. He is a regular writer and speaker on topics related to practical theology. When Life Turns Upside Down:
Finding Stability through God's Comforting Peace

JOHN A. (JAY) YOUNTS

978-1-63342-207-0

Small-format, 88pp | $9.99

Mankind is not in control of the world. Throughout history, there have been moments when God has made this powerfully clear in the space of a heartbeat. These are the times when life seems to turn upside down. This small book applies the truth of the Holy Spirit through his Word so that each of us may know God's comforting peace in troubled times. Since God remains in loving, compassionate control of our lives, our hearts can still praise and proclaim the beauty of the gospel, even when life is upside down.

"Over the years, Jay Younts has been my personal Gandalf, my Mr. Miagi, my Paul. With fatherly wisdom and genuine care, Jay offers us this prayerful life-guide, showing us how to live life from God's perspective and not our own, keeping us right-side up in a world that feels upside down."

—Kirk Cameron: Actor, Film Producer

"This book will provide encouragement and hope in these scary times."

Lions for Ajax

NANCY SNYDER

978-1-63342-145-5

144pp | $14.99

A STORY ABOUT THE BEAUTY
AND SYMMETRY OF GOD'S DESIGN FOR GENDER

Nancy Snyder writes in the introduction:

Lions for Ajax is joyfully set in a world where gender is a gift from a wise and loving God to be lived for his glory. I wrote it for children I love who struggle to accept and live their gender as a gift. Some of the characters in Lions for Ajax revel in the gift of their gender. Other characters live sham distortions of their gender but find the joy of repentance. Others wrestle with the gift of their gender but take courageous steps to live the wonder of their masculinity or femininity for the glory of God.

"Lions for Ajax is a jewel of a book. The characters are vital and vibrant, and the protagonists, Joe and Lisa, deal with real-life problems with authentic Christian grace. This poignant work of fiction offers lived experience and sharp theology on a weighty subject: how to parent, shepherd, disciple, and love a child who hates that God made him a boy."

—Rosaria Butterfield

Man Up Kneel Down:
Shepherding Your Wife toward Greater Joy in Jesus

J. AARON WHITE

978-1-63342-186-8

144pp | $14.99

FROM THE INTRODUCTION:

The aim of this book is simple yet multifaceted. I want to lovingly charge Christian men to embrace the well-known yet seldom-lived call of Ephesians chapter five: "Husbands, love your wives as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her" (Eph. 5:25). Additionally, I want to offer practical nuts and bolts advice for men to prayerfully and joyfully enact in their homes and marriages.

This is not a book of mere principles and steps to a better marriage; it will require faith, sacrifice, and dogged trust in the promises of the gospel. Although imperfect, I can gladly say that God has blessed my marriage to Tanya, and I have found more joy in Christ through the experience of marital union than nearly anywhere else. It is from my overflow of joy in God's good design that I write this book. I sincerely hope that you will be encouraged, challenged, refreshed, inspired, convicted, and strengthened by the pages ahead.

Epilogue

"While being street level and upbeat in tone, he does not avoid hard things—cancer, miscarriage, depression, anxiety, loss of parent, wayward child, preparation for death—consistently pointing to the preeminence of Christ Jesus. Roll up your sleeves and prepare to be a better husband in the strength God supplies."

—Sam Crabtree: Pastor at Bethlehem Baptist Church, author of Practicing Affirmation: God-Centered Praise of Those Who Are Not God

"Man Up Kneel Down encouraged me as a husband and gave me practical suggestions for how I can grow in my love and care for my wife. You can't ask for more out of a book. Good marriage books are like vitamins, you gotta keep taking them to benefit. So, get a copy of Man Up Kneel Down and get the spiritual nutrition you need to keep your marriage growing and healthy."

—Marty Machowski

"Pastor White has written an excellent resource for Christian marriage! It's grounded in the truth and beauty of the gospel, full of biblical wisdom, and winsome yet serious in its personal application. Wives will be truly blessed as their husbands embrace this sacred calling to love as Christ loves His church."

Who Needs a Friend When You Can Make a Disciple? Two Women's Personal Journey to Biblical Friendship

BARBARA ENTER AND GINA WEINMANN

978-1-63342-219-3
160pp | $14.99

Who Needs a Friend When You Can Make a Disciple? is an intriguing title to a very helpful book. In evangelical circles we often hear a lot about discipleship, but seldom hear or read about the specifics of how to actually do the work of discipling. In this book Barbara and Gina bring the ministry of discipleship down to the nuts and bolts of what it looks like in actual practice. Though the contents of this book are based squarely on biblical principles, the outworking of those principles is described in extremely personal and understandable and repeatable ways.

—Dr. Wayne A. Mack,
From The Foreword

“Barbara and Gina’s stories keep your interest and the Scriptures are right on target for the discipleship topic. Another big plus is their insightful questions at the end of every chapter which are perfect for individual or group study. I am glad to recommend this book to you.”

—Martha Peace, ACBC counselor and author of The Excellent Wife

The Man in the Gap: The Life and Ministry of Martin Peterson Holdt

REX JEFFERIES

978-1-63342-216-2
192pp | $16.99

Martin Holdt exercised a ministry in Southern Africa and beyond from the 1960s through the early 2000s. A godly and influential man, his life was marked by prayer and faithfulness to the call to be a pastor as well as a visionary for planting and establishing God-centered, Bible based churches, and with a vision for worldwide mission. As you read, be challenged to follow Christ more consistently! This book includes a postscript appendix by Erroll Hulse.

“I love good biographies of godly men. They are so stimulating, convicting, edifying, moving, challenging, and alluring. This is one of those biographies. It is a must read book—one that is so true to a godly pastor who lived, by God’s grace, wholly for Christ and out of love for the souls of people. Read this book prayerfully, meditatively, and slowly. I pray God that Martin Holdt’s life story will move you to follow him insofar as he followed Christ.”

—Dr. Joel R. Beeke,
From The Foreword

When Disability Hits Home: How God Magnifies His Grace in Our Weakness and Suffering

PAUL TAUTGES WITH JONI EARECKSON TADA

978-1-63342-192-9
160pp | $14.99

In disability the heart of man becomes tethered to pain, thereby providing an unusual opportunity for God’s grace to be magnified and faith trained to be dependent upon the Lord. In this book, written with compassion and sensitivity, Paul Tautges, with Joni Eareckson Tada, draws upon key biblical principles to nurture faith.

“This book honors God and offers hope, both for those who experience disability and for their families.”

—Jim Newheiser: Director of the Christian Counseling Program, RTS Charlotte

“Paul and Joni have done a wonderful job in providing the church a concise, readable, and fearless resource.”

—Paul Martin: Senior Pastor at Grace Fellowship Church, Toronto; Proud father of a WS kid!

The Trivial Life: Escaping the Default Mode of the Human Heart

JASON LANCASTER

978-1-63342-195-0
144pp | $14.99

Why does your life and my life often trend toward that which is trivial? Because the default mode of the human heart is bent toward triviality. Unless intentional action is taken, you are always going to lean in the direction of pursuing that which is trivial. Just as your computer settings will operate under their default mode, unless directed by you to do otherwise, so will your life.

“You want to live for something more than the trivial life? Then you’ll need to look toward home. Jason Lancaster has been looking toward home for thirty years, and we can all learn a lot from his example. But this book has only one Hero, and it’s not Jason. I’m thankful for how he makes much of Jesus in this challenging and compelling book.”

—Collin Hansen: Editorial Director for The Gospel Coalition and author of Blind Spots: Becoming a Courageous, Compassionate, and Commissioned Church

The Painful Path of a Prodigal: Biblical Guidance for Those Who Love Them

CRAIG SVENSSON
978-1-63342-164-6
144pp | $14.99

Parents of prodigals struggle deeply with the challenges they face of relating to their wayward offspring. Siblings, spouses, and children of prodigals face similar struggles. How do you live for Christ in the midst of such personal turmoil? How do you live with a grown child whose destructive choices have turned him into a person so unlike the adorable offspring into whom you poured much of yourself? Ultimately, how do you bear the pain if that prodigal never returns?

In this book, Dr. Craig Svensson and his wife, Sue, show how they are no strangers to such deeply devastating circumstances. Svensson sensitively, engagingly, and compassionately directs readers to Scripture as he helps create the biblical framework for addressing the trauma of having a prodigal in the family.

“Craig Svensson has written a very moving and very needed book with a unique perspective for parents of prodigal children.”

When you were learning to ride a bicycle, the hardest part was the first few pedal strokes—those wobbly seconds before you built up enough momentum to maintain your balance. A generous push from your dad was just what you needed to avoid ending up in a heap of elbows, knees, handlebars, and spokes. Counseling is similar. Sometimes you need something to give you some momentum, something to give you the confidence that you’re on the right track. If you’ve ever felt like that, this book is for you.

Marriage is the union of two people who arrive at the altar toting some surprisingly large luggage. Often it gets opened right there on the honeymoon, sometimes it waits for the week after. The Bible calls it sin and understanding its influence can make all the difference for a man and a woman who are building a life together.

To Be Like Jesus: 40 Meditations for Your Journey toward Christlikeness

BRIAN G. HEDGES

978-1-63342-189-9

160pp | $15.99

The Christian life is a journey of spiritual and moral transformation into the glorious image of Jesus Christ. As with any lengthy journey, we sometimes lose our way, becoming disoriented and confused. We mistake the terrain we have already traversed, lose sight of the road on which we tread, and forget the destination to which we travel. Sometimes we take detours or get stuck on the side of the road. We all need help. In To Be Like Jesus, Brian Hedges provides 40 days of devotional readings that, like road signs, encourage believers in their ongoing journey toward Christlikeness.
